Worth Graham is a Sarasota native and a graduate of the University of Florida and a 2011 graduate of Florida Coastal School of Law.

He brings a special passion to the investment dispute arena, having seen the devastating losses suffered by one of his grandparents resulting from an investment fraud. In fact, that is what motivated him to attend law school so he could help other victims of fraud.

When he is not busy working, Mr. Graham is an avid golfer who also enjoys boating, fishing, and scuba diving.
